Kentucky isn?t the first place you?d expect to see suspicious behavior, but instances of domestic terrorism such as the Oklahoma City bombing are a reminder that criminal activities aren?t confined to high-profile cities.

With vigilance in mind, the Kentucky Office of Homeland Security (KOHS) recently released an iPhone app that mirrors the ?Eyes and Ears on Kentucky? website [4]for reporting ?suspicious activity.?

The free app is designed to allow citizens to send tips to the KOHS ? anonymously if they wish ? on any activity that may be linked to a terrorist act.
